

<https://www.aerospacemediadinner.com>

The 2020 Aerospace Media Awards Update – March 2020

New Venue for 2020 – The Merchant Taylors Hall London

This year the Aerospace Media Dinner will take place at a new venue – The Merchant Taylors Hall in London. Located at 30 Threadneedle Street London this marks a new chapter in the ongoing development of the Aerospace Media Awards, with a capacity in excess of 200 guests and a beautiful courtyard for pre-dinner drinks it is hoped that guests will welcome the increased space and historic surroundings of the Merchant Taylors Hall. To find out more about the Merchant Taylors Hall visit - <https://www.merchant-taylors.co.uk/> and click on the venue tab

New Entertainment – The Rock Choir

For 2020 we have some brand new entertainment, we are delighted to bring to you the incredible Rock Choir - <https://youtu.be/TRH6FiO7LN8>

Discussions are underway to see how many of them we can fit on the stage but you can be assured that the Rock Choir will deliver a performance to remember.

Call for Nominations

The 2020 Call for Nominations has been open since late January and there are still several weeks to go until the closing deadline of 17th April. With new categories this year for the Best Commercial Aviation submission, the Best Passenger and Crew Wellbeing submission and the Best Digital submission (for video reports, podcasts and digital news channels) there are more categories than ever to enter. To make a nomination visit -

<https://www.aerospacemediadinner.com/2020-call-for-nominations/4591214627>

Aerospace Communicator(s) of the Year

Since 2018 there has been an award for the Aerospace Communicator of the Year. This can either be for an individual or communications team who have demonstrated to the aviation media their ability to communicate their messages to the aviation press and generally deliver an impactful presence to the aviation press. The voting process is very easy, simply send in your vote for the person or team you believe that have performed outstandingly in the last 12 months. The winner will be the person or team that accumulates the most votes.

2020 sponsors

